

Predrill a hole in each corner of the cutout and install the adjustment screws as shown above. Adjust the screws so the router plate sits flush with the surface of the table top.